

Typhoid! and Milk Matters:* WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS

1. In 1904, F. Phillips wrote to City Council about typhoid fever concerns. What company name is on the letterhead? _____

2. Name three members of staff who worked for the City's Health Department in 1907.

3. Examine the image on page/screen 9. How do the text and pictures work together to instruct the public?

4. In an earlier time, citizens often wrote letters to the Mayor and Council. Look at them. How do their letters differ from the ones we might send today?

5. What words appear on the side of the cart on page/screen 3 of Milk Matters?

6. How many "mothers" are in the photo on page/screen 4 of Milk Matters? _____

7. On page/screen 5 of Milk Matters, what were they using to filter out the dirt?

8. What appears in the City's former coat of arms shown on page/screen 8? Why do you think these objects were chosen?

