PART B – BIDDING PROCEDURES

- Add: B15.2                      None of Veolia's personnel will have any role whatsoever (whether directly or indirectly) in the evaluation of the Proposals and recommendation for award of Contract pursuant to this RFP. None of Veolia's personnel will have any access to the contents of the Proposals until after award of Contract. After award of Contract, Veolia's personnel will have access to the Contract to the extent that the City determines necessary for Veolia to provide services to the City under the Program.
- Clarification of B21.5.6(d):      If product drying equipment is not required to meet the delivery conditions required under the Struvite purchase agreement proposed by a Bidder, the City will include in its estimate of construction and installation costs the estimated future cost to procure and install such equipment five (5) years from the date of Satisfactory Process Performance, in reasonable anticipation of the City's needs at the end of the initial term of the Struvite purchase agreement.
- Clarification of B21.5.7:        If product drying equipment is not required to meet the delivery conditions required under the Struvite purchase agreement proposed by a Bidder, the City will include the estimated future cost to operate and maintain such equipment starting five (5) years from the date of Satisfactory Process Performance, in reasonable anticipation of the City's needs at the end of the initial term of the Struvite purchase agreement.
