QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q1 Ionic is mentioned as the required mobile framework for custom development. Is there a required/preferred web development framework (i.e. Microsoft .NET, Java, etc.)?

A1 Yes, .NET as preferred web development framework (Ionic is already listed as preferred development framework for the mobile app).

Q2 For a custom web solution, is there a required/preferred JavaScript library to be leveraged in the development?

A2 There is no required or preferred JavaScript library to be leveraged in the development.

Q3 As per section B10.1 Proposals should include:

(a) details demonstrating the history and experience of the Proponent and Subcontractors in providing programming; design, management of the project and contract administration services on up to three projects of similar complexity, scope and value.

Is it up to 3 projects combined proponent and subcontractors or can the proponent and subcontractor provide up to 3 projects each?

A3 Yes, both combined can provide three projects, if they are declared as subcontractors and information is provided in accordance with B10.2.1.
