QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q1: Please clarify whether any building-level analysis is required under this study? If so, please provide the approximate number of buildings and/or total floor area to be assessed, and confirm what existing building and energy data will be provided by the City.

A1: The required analysis is at the city-wide and priority-area level. The Consultant shall use building-related data, as appropriate, to support the priority-area geospatial analysis and baseline energy demand modelling under D4.12 and D4.13. The analysis does not require assessment of a prescribed number of buildings or total floor area. The City may provide relevant City-held data, where available. The Consultant is responsible for identifying and sourcing the data required to complete the study.
