PART D – SUPPLEMENTAL CONDITIONS

Add: D1.2 The Work of the Contract requires that the City agree to the terms and conditions of the Techsmith Corporation's SNAGIT Subscription End User License Agreement for Techsmith Software (the "Techsmith EULA"). The terms of the Techsmith EULA govern the City's relationship with Techsmith Corporation, a third party to this Contract, and use of the third party products to which it is applicable thereto which are to be supplied by the Contractor. For the avoidance of doubt, while the Contractor may be party to the Techsmith EULA as a Supplier, Reseller, or Distributor, as those terms are used therein, the terms and conditions described in D1.1 shall form the sole contract between the City and Contractor for the supply of the licenses forming part of the Work, and the terms described in D1.1 shall prevail as between the City and Contractor to the extent that there is any inconsistency or conflict between this Contract and the Techsmith EULA.
