- Hosting delegations/community presentations;
- Providing input and advice to Indigenous Relations to align existing and newly created processes related to creating new, adding to or removing/rename historical markers and place names.

Qualifications for this committee include:

- Professional or community work that reflects an applicant's interest and expertise in Winnipeg's history and the ongoing impacts and legacy of colonization, locally and internationally;
- Skills, education and experience in specific areas (such as research, project evaluation and policy analysis) that would allow an applicant to contribute to committee recommendations and influence change;
- Effective communication skills;
